The election in Greenbrier.

The election in this county passed off quietly. The Radical candidates for the House of Delegates, having no opposition, walked over the track in great triumph. Mann, Newlin and Jarrett, nominees of the Radical Convention, are elected to represent the counties of Greenbrier and Monroe, in the House of Delegates. A. R. Humphreys, nom inee of the same party, is elected, we presume, to the Senate, from this District. Z. Trueblood, Radical, was elected County Superintendent of Free Schools—no opposition. Cyrus Newlin was elected States Altorney for this county, and, we presume, to the same position in all the counties in this Judicial District.—Greenbrier Independent, Oct. 31.
